"The schedule of high school football games this year is as competitive as ever. What continues to be important on The U Too is not only to show the great games in Chicagoland, but to be able to highlight remarkable students and their teachers during a special feature segment of each broadcast. It's an honor for us to have the chance to spotlight these schools and the community, and we look forward to an exciting season," said Fred Weintraub, Executive Producer, Weigel Broadcasting Co.

'The Jam' will also get in on the action this season with Jon Hansen making Friday-morning visits to the schools, providing live coverage of the excitement building up around each game.
